

Pattern: Verb + Infinitive Conversation Questions

When some verbs are followed by a verb, we use the infinitive (to ~) form. Try to answer each question using the verb in bold followed by the infinitive form of another verb. Then try to continue each conversation naturally.

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you decided what to do this weekend?
2. How much would you offer to pay me to sing for you?
3. Would you agree or refuse to bungy jump if I paid for it?
4. What are you planning to do next year?
5. Most people can't afford to do what?
6. Someone threatened to hurt me! What should I do?
7. What do you need to do to get better at English?
8. Have you gone on vacation and realized that you failed to bring something important? What was it?
9. What did you forget to do recently?
10. What would you like to learn to do?
11. What do you tend to do when you are hungry?
12. It could be fun to pretend to be someone else. Who would you pretend to be?
13. Can you promise to always be honest?
14. What would you expect to see if you went to New York City?
15. What is something that you hope to do in your life?
